RELIGIOUS INTELLIGENCE.

REV. HENRY D. MOORE, late pastor of the [Pl]ymouth Congregational Church, will conclude [hi]s labors in this city to-morrow evening, when [he] will preach in Christ M. E. Church, Penn [str]eet.

THE Noonday Prayer-meeting will be removed on Monday next, from the audience-room to [th]e lecture-room of the Church on Fifth street. [Th]e attendance is considerably reduced, but the [in]terest seems unabated among those who do [at]tend; and it is thought that the smaller room [wi]ll be quite sufficient for the audiences, and [pe]rhaps more comfortable and home-like for [th]e familiar exercises of such a meeting. The [go]od accomplished by these meetings can never [be] told. It will continue to be felt for all time [to] come, and will be remembered for ever in [he]aven. The devil has been devising various [m]ethods to dissuade the people from attend[in]g these meetings, tempting Christians by ar[gu]ments based on false humility to stay [at] home, or to occupy remote seats, or if within [th]e walls, to keep silent, lest they be considered [pr]ominent before the eyes of the public. Such [im]pressions have been whispered abroad, and [ov]er-timid young disciples have been embar[ra]ssed by them, and the deceiver has secretly [la]ughed at his success in thinning the meet[in]gs. Let the religious community rally again [an]d crowd the lecture-room as a few weeks ago, [an]d there will be similar scenes and influences, [an]d all the churches will be made again to re[jo]ice in the conversion of sinners.

THE Sunday School Institute conducted by [R]ev. Mr. Vincent at Christ M. E. Church this [we]ek, has been one of the most interesting [m]eetings of the kind ever known in this city. [M]r. Vincent devotes all his time and talent to [th]e Sunday School work, and, having travelled [in] the Holy Land, he is peculiarly well qualified [to] make Bible study pleasant and profitable to [hi]s classes. The teachers who had the privilege [of] attending his course of instructions were put [in] possession of many thoughts and facts which [wi]ll be suggestive for all time to come.

THE Young Men's Prayer Meeting, under the [au]spices of the Christian Association, will be [h]eld this evening at 7½ o'clock in Grace Church, [c]orner of Grant and Webster streets. All who [h]ave the prosperity of the organization at heart [a]re especially requested to attend this meeting. [T]he Saturday evening prayer meetings have [h]itherto been well attended and very interest[in]g.

We noticed a very fine group of portraits in [t]he window of Mr. Gillespie, Wood street, yes[te]rday, called the "Methodist Preachers of [P]ittsburgh." The central figure in the group [i]s that of John Wesley, the founder of Meth[o]dism, whose portrait is placed in this group, [w]e presume, as emblematical of the faith and [e]cclesiastical economy of the ministers who [s]urround him. The likenesses are beautifully [e]xecuted and tastefully arranged, and will be [r]eadily recognized by their friends. The idea [i]s a good one, which the laity of their respect[iv]e charges will appreciate, and teaches a lesson [o]f fraternity which all will delight to see ex[e]mplified, not only in shadow, on paper, [b]ut in reality through daily life, as [t]hese brethren have indicated by [t]heir roads and works. The artist who has [g]athered and grouped these preachers so ingen[i]ously is Mr. Thomas Graham, 93 Wood street. We should like to see the ministers of other denominations thus arranged in a single picture.

THE different churches of the city are more largely attended now than at any time for many years.

THE General Assembly of the United Presbyterian Church will meet on Thursday, May 23d, at Xenia, Ohio. Very important business is contemplated.

THE Northern Conference of the Pittsburgh Synod, Lutheran Church, will convene Tuesday evening, May 14, in New Lebanon, Mercer county. The opening sermon will be preached by Rev S. B. Fox, on Church Discipline, and a debate will occur during the session on this question: "Should Women Speak in Church?" The disputants are—affirmative, Rev. J. L. Smith; negative, Rev. C. F. Boehner. It is quite probable that women will continue to do as they have done, on this subject, whatever may be the result of the debate.

"HOMESPUN" is the title of a most unique and readable volume, written by Thomas Luckland, and published by Hurd & Houghton, New York. It contains some of the finest word-painting in the language. The scenes it reproduces are of childhood's home, and early joys, all beautiful as if lived over again. This book should find a place in every Sunday School library, for it teaches many important lessons so charmingly that the children who learn them will never forget their meaning.

REV. G. R. W. SCOTT will preach in the Congregational Church, Hand street, Sunday evening, 7½ o'clock.

THE Sunday School connected with the St. James Episcopal Church, corner of Penn and Mechanic streets, will hold their anniversary meeting at the church, to-morrow, (Sunday) afternoon, at three o'clock. Bishop Kerfoot will be present and administer the rite of confirmation at the opening services.

THE revival meetings at the Baptist Church, in Sharpsburg, under the labors of the Evangelist, George Balcom, are increasing in interest, and a number more will be baptized to-morrow afternoon.

THE new Methodist Episcopal Church at Sandy Creek, on Wilkinsburg charge, Rev. W. W. Roup, pastor, will be dedicated to divine worship on Sabbath, May 12th. Dr. Pershing, of this city, will preach the dedicatory sermon at half past ten A. M.

THE Barnesville District Preacher's Association, Pittsburgh M. E. Conference, will meet in St. Clairsville, May 21st, at 2 o'clock P. M.

THE Clarion District M. E. Preachers' Association will meet at Strattonville, Clarion county, Pennsylvania, commencing Tuesday evening, May 14th.

THE meeting of the Shenango Preachers' Association has been postponed, in consequence of the still unfinished condition of the church where the meeting is to be held.

A MEETING of the Board of Trustees of Tarentum camp ground, will be held on Wednesday afternoon, May 8th, at two o'clock, to take into consideration the improvement of the camp ground, and for the transaction of any other business in connection with the same. Charges having no representation in the Board at present, are requested to send two delegates to meet with the trustees.

THE Uniontown district meeting of traveling and local ministers of the M. E. Church, will be held at Elizabeth, on June 3d and 4th.

THE Uniontown district stewards will hold their annual meeting at the same place, on Tuesday morning, June 3d.

THE General Conference of the non-Episcopal Methodist Church will meet in Cleveland, Ohio, one week from next Wednesday. The union between the Wesleyan Methodists and the Methodist Protestants, so far as it is possible, will there be consummated. Thereafter the General Conference will meet once every four years.

THE English Lutheran Church, on Seventh street, will be re-opened to-morrow for Divine worship. Rev. Samuel Laird, the newly installed pastor, will conduct the exercises.

Argument in the Mississippi Injunction Case.

Object of the Japanese Embassy.

To Purchase Light Draught Vessels and Iron Clads.

Progress of Impeachment Investigation.

Liberal Construction of Disfranchising Clause in Reconstruction Act.

The Movement in Behalf of Jeff. Davis.

Special Dispatch to the Pittsburgh Commercial.

WASHINGTON, May 3, 1867.

The Reconstruction Injunction.

The arguments in the reconstruction injunction cases were resumed in the Supreme Court to-day. The attendance was very large, far beyond the capacity of the court room. Robt. J. Walker spoke for four hours in favor of granting the injunction in behalf of Mississippi. It was so late when he concluded that the Attorney General had to defer his reply until Monday. This will delay the decision.

The Japanese Embassy.

It transpired to-day that the principal object of the visit of the Japanese commissioners to this country is not to make a commercial treaty, but to purchase light draught vessels of war, including iron-clads. They have been engaged to-day since their presentation to the President in making a number of private purchases, among which were fifty Webster's Dictionaries.

The Impeachment Investigation.

The Judiciary Committee met to-day with the chairman present, and a quorum on hand. One witness was examined. Congressman Ashley is in town, and engaged in presenting evidence on the impeachment matter.

Reconstruction Disfranchising Clause.

A delegation from New Orleans had an interview with the Attorney General to-day, and were informed that the administration intended to give the disfranchising clause of the reconstruction law a liberal construction, so as to allow full registration. The Attorney General declared that the registers under General Sheridan had done wrong in refusing to register city, county and township officers, for he did not regard them as officers of the State. He is also of opinion that Congress did not intend to exclude a man from voting who had happened to take an oath to support the Constitution and then participated in the rebellion, unless he had held an office which required an oath of fidelity to the National Government.

Cabinet Meetings.

The regular meeting of the Cabinet was held to-day; all the members were present except Secretary Browning, and the session continued for some time.

The Case of Jeff. Davis.

It is learned to-day from the counsel for Jeff. Davis that they applied a few days since to Chief Justice Chase for a writ of habeas corpus in behalf of their client, which the Chief Justice declined then to entertain. Application was then made to Judge Underwood of the United States District Court by the counsel of Davis for a writ of habeas corpus, and the same was granted, returnable before the Court of that District on the second Monday of this month, at Richmond. The counsel appearing here to-day was George Shea, of New York city. The object of the writ is to get Davis before the Court with a view to his trial or discharge. It remains to be seen whether General Burton, in command at Fortress Monroe, will produce Davis in Court.

WASHINGTON, May 3, 1867.

THE MISSISSIPPI INJUNCTION CASE.

The Mississippi injunction case being before the Supreme Court to-day, Robert J. Walker made an argument for the petitioners, denying that Congress had power to pass an act beyond the range of judicial inquiry, and contending that the Constitution provided for such cases as this to be brought before the Court. In replying to Attorney General Stanbery's remarks of last Friday, Mr. Walker maintained that political questions had not been excluded from this Court, and in support of this position he referred, among other and more recent cases, to the military commission and test oath questions, upon both of which the Supreme Court had pronounced their opinion. Mr. Walker quoted various decisions in further refutation of the Attorney General's views, that this Court has jurisdiction in cases not involving money and land, and in conclusion, while speaking of the desperate and wholesale sweeping out of ten States of the Union by the reconstruction act, as directly contrary to the Constitution of the United States, said: A broader bill of attainder in penalties had never been passed. It reduced ten millions of loyal and disloyal people to bondage, and substituted the gleaming sword and bristling bayonet for constitutional guards and the courts of law.

When Mr. Walker had finished, it wanted twenty minutes to three. After consultation the court said they would hear Attorney General Stanbery in reply on Monday, to which time the court adjourned.

THE JAPANESE COMMISSIONERS,

Accompanied by Secretary Seward, arrived at the Executive Mansion this morning. Shortly before the hour of the Cabinet meeting, twelve o'clock, they were presented to the President, who received them in the private reception rooms. Secretary McCulloch was present. The interview was of that formal character with which the introduction of foreign Commissioners, or diplomats from foreign countries, are conducted. The chief Commissioner, who was clad in the official costume of his rank, upon being introduced by the Secretary of State, made a short address to the President, in which he stated his happiness at meeting him, and conveyed to him the kind expressions from the Tycoon. The credentials of the Commissioners were read in the original and translated to the President, who expressed to them the pleasure he experienced in meeting them. The particular object of the mission will be conveyed to the Government through the Secretary of State, to whom the Commission will communicate it at an early day. At the conclusion of the interview, which lasted only about twenty-five minutes, the Commissioners were conducted through the various public rooms of the mansion. The Japanese design remaining sometime.

At the reception of the Japanese by the President to-day, the chief commissioner expressed the earnest wish of the Tycoon for the health of the President and happiness and prosperity of the people of the United States; that the friendly relations may continue and intercourse between the countries be extended. The President replied, welcoming the Japanese, expressing the belief that their desire for friendly and intimate relations were sincere. The nations are so widely separate that neither has any reason to covet what the other possesses, and without unnecessary provocation neither can find cause to do the other injury. We have sought to obtain from the people of Japan no advantage which was not reciprocally beneficial, and whatever difficulties have at any time arisen between some of his people and the citizens of the United States, your sovereign has always done all in his power to avert them. We are advancing our frontier near to Japan, while we are at the same time connecting our ports with hers by new, regular and frequent steamships. It shall not be my fault if the two countries do not come to esteem each other more by reason of great commercial and social intimacy. You will make your special business known to the Secretary of State at your own convenience, and it will receive the attention and respect which is always bestowed by the Government on the wishes of a friendly nation. If beyond this it shall be in the power of this Government to aid you with disinterested advice, counsel and assistance, they will be cheerfully afforded.

The Commissioners rejoined that they were made very happy by the kind and generous words of the President.

REGISTRATION IN MISSISSIPPI.

General Ord has issued an order appointing Registers of Elections in certain counties in Mississippi. He gives instructions similar to those of General Sheridan, viz: that the disfranchising clause of the reconstruction act be strictly construed pending the decision of the Attorney General of the United States.

REGISTERS IN BANKRUPTCY.

The Registers in Bankruptcy will soon be appointed. The intention is to officially inform the Judges of the respective Courts, from time to time, of appointments, while withholding information from the press.

CABINET MEETING.

Secretary Stanton having recovered from his recent illness attended the Cabinet meeting to-day. All the members were present excepting Browning, who, though improved in health, is still confined to bed.

The receipts of internal revenue to-day were about a million and a thousand of dollars.

PERSONAL.

Judge Underwood was in the city to-day in consultation with Attorney General Stanbery relative to business connected with the habeas corpus sued out for bringing Jeff. Davis before the Circuit Court at Richmond.

SUBPŒNA SERVED ON GEN. POPE.

Accounts from Macon, Ga., state that Governor Jenkins had brought to Georgia himself the subpœna of the United States Supreme Court in the Georgia case, and had it served on General Pope, when they were stopping at the same hotel in Atlanta last week. General Pope replied that he would obey the order of the court.

HIGHLY INTERESTING.

NEW YORK, May 3, 1867.

CASE OF JEFF. DAVIS.

The Post says: On Wednesday last George Shea, counsel for Jefferson Davis, presented a petition to the United States Circuit Court of Virginia, and moved upon it before Judge Underwood for a writ of habeas corpus, directed to General Burton, commanding Fortress Monroe, to have Jefferson Davis before that court at Richmond on the second Monday in May. The Judge, after hearing the argument from Mr. Shea, and some deliberation, granted the writ. The writ has been sent to Richmond, and has been placed in the hands of a United States Deputy Marshal for immediate execution.

Another dispatch to the Commercial says: If Jefferson Davis is not released on bail by Judge Underwood next week, the President will order his liberation.

IMPEACHMENT.

Representatives Ashley and Covode have come here to urge the impeachment of the President, in which case there will be an extra session of the Senate in July.

WILL NOT PRESIDE.

Chief Justice Chase sees nothing in the present condition of Virginia under the military bill to warrant him in departing from his former course in declining to preside at the trial of Davis. He will hold no court in the South until civil authority is so far established as to cease being dependent on military power.

STEAMERS ARRIVED.

The steamers Denmark, Columbia and Wm. Penn, from Europe, arrived to-day.

WHISKY SEIZED.

Sixty-seven barrels of illicit whisky were seized in this city Thursday night.

REFUGEES FROM IRELAND.

Great numbers of refugees are arriving in this city from Ireland. They give very discouraging accounts of the state of the country, and say the movement in Ireland is entirely abandoned. It is said Colonel Roberts has made a special call on the Fenian brotherhood for aid for families of Irish prisoners.

TROT ON FASHION COURSE.

A trot on Fashion Course to-day, between several horses, best three in five, was won by Lizzie Warwick, owned in Cincinnati. Best time, 2:34¼.

FROM CHICAGO.

The Eight Hour Trouble---Suspension of Business Almost General---Ignorance and Violence---Proclamation from the Mayor.

CHICAGO, May 3.—The action of the eight hour men appears to have brought about almost a general suspension of business, and this in some cases by means of violence. The riotous spirit is confined entirely to the more ignorant class of laborers, mostly employed in lumber and dock yards. These laborers have visited planing mills and other manufacturing establishments, and succeeded by threats in intimidating the respectable class of workmen, and causing them to discontinue work. As usual in such demonstrations, wherever a squad of police appeared, the mob disappeared. Several arrests were made, and a number of the ringleaders are now in jail. The Mayor has issued a proclamation informing the disaffected that the laws must be enforced, and asking them to go quietly to their homes.

CHICAGO, May 3.—The fire in the Merchant's hotel to-day originated in the laundry, and within thirty minutes from the first alarm nearly the whole building was a mass of flames. The guests numbered 150, several of whom had very narrow escapes. Five or six were let down by ropes from the upper floors, and two gentlemen were nearly suffocated before being rescued. The loss on the building and contents will probably not exceed $100,000 over insurance, $20,000 of which will fall on the lessees of the hotel. Crosby's Opera House was for a time considered in danger, and some of the art rooms are much damaged by water. We are not able as yet to give the names of the insurance companies who suffer loss.

SOUTH AMERICA.

New Line of Steamers to Panama----The Religious Question---Peru in a Revolutionary Condition----Riot at Lima----Treaties Accepted.

NEW YORK, May 3.—Lima correspondence states that Congress has granted a permit to a new line of steamers to Panama, connecting with those to the United States and Europe.

The American steamer Aurora was abandoned by her captain at Callao, the government having refused to give a receipt for her after buying her.

The country is in a revolutionary state. Outbreaks have occurred at various points, but none of any great extent.

The religious question continued to agitate the people. A measure of toleration was defeated by a vote of 42 to 40. A proposition to reduce the Church property caused great excitement. The priests called a meeting and addressed the people in incendiary language. When the representatives began to arrive they were pelted with stones. The riot was not quelled until the military was called out. One man was killed and several wounded. The people threatened to use force to prevent the church being robbed.

Offensive and defensive treaties were accepted by Salvador, Honduras, Colombia, Venezuela, Ecuador and Bolivia, and it was believed Chile and Peru would also accept.

FROM INDIANAPOLIS.

Preliminary Examination of the Murderer McMinniway---The People Disposed to Lynch Him.

INDIANAPOLIS, May 3.—At the preliminary examination to-day of McMinniway, before the Magistrate, he was found guilty of murder in the first degree. Judge Eckles adjourned his Court at Bloomington, and with the Sheriff and members of the bar went to Gosport. At the conclusion of the preliminary examination Judge Eckles, Ex-Gov. Dunning, and Messrs. Buskirk and Montgomery, of Bloomington, addressed the excited crowd of citizens, urging a strict observance of the law. The prisoner was then started under a guard of twenty-five men for the jail, at Spencer. The excitement is still very great, and it was with difficulty lynching was prevented.

LOUISVILLE, May 3.—Dispatches from Gosport, Indiana, to 1 P. M., state that McMinniway, the murderer of Johns, the telegraph operator and station agent, would surely be hung this evening. A platform has been erected in the street to try the prisoner. The excitement was very great.

FROM CANADA.

Circular from Commissioner of Customs ---Navigation Opened.

OTTOWA, May 3.—The Commissioner of Customs has issued a circular explaining articles admitted free of duty as mill and factory machinery, under the tariff, applies only to machinery of all kinds, for cording, spinning, weaving, rope making, milling of flour, meal, &c., paper making, sawing, and other manufactories, and when intended to be fixtures and form part of a mill or factory, and circular or upright saws, cards, spinners, bobbins, or articles of a similar make, which will be subject to a duty of 15 per cent. ad valorem, unless imported with the machines to which they belong. Iron chains of less diameter than one-half inch, must pay 15 per cent. Iron cables of over one-half inch, free. Navigation in the Rideau canal opened yesterday.

MONTREAL, May 3.—Navigation is now opened and steamers running.

FROM MEMPHIS.

Model Morals---No Murders for a Week.

MEMPHIS, May 3.—No murders occurred last night for the first time within a week. On Wednesday night a planter named Smith Wilson, residing at Germantown, near here, while sitting on a sofa talking to his wife, was shot, through his window, by an unknown assassin. He fell into his wife's arms and expired. No clue to the murderer.

FROM COLUMBUS, O.

Trouble among Moulders at Ironton, O. ---One of the Strikers Killed.

COLUMBUS, May 3.—The Moulders' Union at Ironton, O., are on a strike. Some moulders went to work and the strikers attempted to run them out of town to-night, and in the row one of the strikers named Charles Divermore, was killed.

Mrs. Davis in Washington.

FORTRESS MONROE, May 3.—Mrs. Davis went to Washington last evening, for the purpose of conferring with President Johnson on the release of her husband.

Prize Fight.

DENVER, COLORADO, May 3.—In a prize fight here yesterday between Reed and Fitzgerald, for one thousand dollars, ninety-six rounds were fought. Reed won.

MEXICO.

Official Reports to Senor Romero.

Marqueze Defeated at San Cristobel.

Artillery and Stores Captured.

WASHINGTON, May 3.—Senor Romero, Mexican Minister, received a communication from General Benavides, commanding officer of the forces besieging Vera Cruz, of which the following is a translation:

CARA MATA, IN FRONT OF VERA CRUZ, April 15, 1867.

I have the honor to inclose to you a copy of General Diaz's official report to the general Government, of a very important victory he obtained over the traitor Marquez, on the 12th inst., at San Cristobel. Having followed up this victory, he is now at the city of Mexico. We are waiting here a battery of heavy rifled artillery, which General Diaz sent from Puebla, which will arrive to-morrow or next day, to assault Vera Cruz. When we receive the artillery we can take the city in a few hours. It is said Queretaro has been taken by General Escobedo, and Maximilian captured.

[Signed] RAFAEL BENAVIDES.

Translation of General Diaz's official report:

HEADQUARTERS EASTERN MIL. DIV., SAN CHRISTOBAL, April 12, 1867.

SIR:—I have the pleasure to inform you, that you may communicate the same to the citizen President of the Republic, that Marquez having succeeded in avoiding a decisive battle at the hacienda of San Lorenzo, I followed close upon his heels, and this morning, with the first division of cavalry of this army, under command of General Zeora, together with a corps of the same arm of the army operating against Queretaro, under command of General Guadaremo, who had joined me the previous night. In order to escape, the enemy abandoned seventy-two wagons, ladened with ammunition, and other war materials, but I finally came up with him at the bridge of San Cristobel. He was compelled, after several warm engagements, to leave in our possession his entire artillery train, munitions and a large number of killed and wounded, besides some two hundred prisoners, subsequently retiring in great disorder with but one-fourth of his force. He was vigorously pursued on the road to Texicoro, and I believe that only the leaders and officers will reach the city of Mexico, accompanied by the mercenary corps of Austrians who, being well mounted, may possibly reach the capitol to-day.

[Signed.] PORFIARI DIAZ, Commanding Eastern Division.

To Ignacio Mejia, Secretary of War, San Luis Potosi.

Murder in the First Degree.

DAYTON, O., May 3.—The jury in the case of Joseph Leslie to-day brought in a verdict of murder in the first degree, for the shooting of Miss Mirandi Coylor, at Sharpsburg, near this city, in August.

RAILWAY MATTERS.

THE CONNECTING RAILROAD.—The connecting railroad, seven miles long, from the Pennsylvania Railroad at West Philadelphia to the Philadelphia and Trenton Railroad at Frankford, will be opened to business on the 1st day of June, by which date a temporary depot, now in process of erection on the Pennsylvania Railroad Company's grounds at Market and Thirty-first streets, will also be in readiness. It is the intention, we believe, says the U. S. Railroad Register, after June 1, to start all the New York passenger trains which have through connections West and South, from West Philadelphia, to which point cars bound for and from Pittsburgh and Jersey City will be added to trains bound for and from Philadelphia and Pittsburgh, and for and from Philadelphia and Washington. This arrangement will open a continuous route between Jersey City and Philadelphia, Pittsburgh and Baltimore, which will be common between Jersey City and West Philadelphia, and which from the last named place will diverge West and South. The connecting railroad will enable as good time to be made between Pittsburgh and Jersey City via Philadelphia, as via Allentown, and will bring into use for all through travel East and West the whole mileage of the Pennsylvania Railroad, and also the whole mileage of the Camden and Amboy consolidated line.

CINCINNATI AND ZANESVILLE RAILROAD.—The completion of this road from Zanesville to Millersburg, O., is being warmly agitated. The Zanesville Courier says: The completion of this link in the Cincinnati and Zanesville Railroad, giving us as it would direct communication with the Pan Handle Railroad; the Pittsburgh and Fort Wayne Railroad; with the Mahoning Valley Railroad; with the Atlantic and Great Western Railroad, and with all the roads that center at Cleveland, would be of great benefit to all our merchants and shippers. We hear it talked, but cannot vouch for its accuracy that the company that have the control of the Cincinnati and Zanesville railroad are ready to build the link between this place and Millersburg, providing the right of way is given to them. If this be true, efforts should be made by Zanesville, Coshocton and other points to secure the same, and that at once, and the road should be running by next winter. We also hear another rumor that the Pennsylvania Central, the strongest company in the United States have leased the route and are going to build the road. Out of some of these or out of our own exertions we hope the road will speedily be completed.

CONSOLIDATION.—A meeting of the Directors of the Buffalo and State Line Railroad Company was held in Buffalo last week, and a committee appointed to meet the Directors of the Erie and Northeast Company, for the purpose of arranging the details of the proposed consolidation. The consultation took place at Erie on Saturday.

THE TIONESTA RAILROAD.—The Oil City Register says: Arrangements for commencing the work on the Tionesta Valley Railroad, are being pushed forward with vigor. We understand that the contract for building the road has been awarded to Mr. L. J. Fox, of Cleveland, Ohio, who is well and favorably known in this county as a constructor of railroads. The work of staking out the line will commence to-day, and in a few weeks we may expect to see the "ground broken."

The Paris Exhibition.

The Paris correspondent of the New York Belletristic Journal says: A singular and very remarkable occurrence connected with the examination of the Pianos exhibited at the World's Fair, in Paris, has caused quite an excitement with the musical public and the press. The Committee were accompanied by two Imperial Commissioners, namely: The piano manufacturer Wolf, of the firm of Pleyel & Wolf, and Henry Herz, well known in America as a composer and maker of Pianos. On trying and testing the Pianos of Steinway & Sons yesterday morning, these gentlemen immediately declared their determination of withdrawing their Pianos from all competition. Both firms had previously entered Piano Fortes for competition for the prize. This occurrence was all the more significant from the fact that the Parisians, musicians as well as manufacturers, had received the attempt of the Americans to compete with themselves in a branch of art—industry—with derision and scorn. The involuntary exclamation of one of the Committee members: "Yes, yes! these Americans are d—lish fellows," conveys great praise as to our art progress.

RATHER ill-naturedly, the New York Tribune suggests that Mrs. Craik—Miss Dinah Maria Muloch that was—has John Halifax, Gentleman, on the brain, and that, in whatever she writes, she reproduces the character, in some form or other, just as Rubens made his wife the principal figure in all of his paintings, no matter whether the subject was a Madonna or the Rape of the Sabines. The newest phase of Halifaxinism she has depicted is one Sir John Bowerbank, in her novel or "Two Marriages." Sir John has married a lady, who has been disappointed in a touching affair of the heart and whose only desire thereafter is to lead a quiet life with a good man whom she can respect. But she never gets over her first love, which a purse-proud parent has disapproved, and dies prematurely, murmuring "dear John," leaving Sir John perplexed to know whether the thought was of him or of the former lover, whose name was also John.

ROLLING MILL IN MASSILLON.—The Massillon correspondent of the Canton, Ohio, Republican says:—There is no doubt but that we are to have a rolling mill at last. A meeting of our capitalists was held at the Union Bank last week and a committee appointed to confer with the parties desirous of erecting the mill. Mr. Clement Russell of this committee, after having seen the parties reported everything favorably, when the committee at once began their efforts to secure the amount required to purchase the land and give the $10,000 bonds. The members of the committee themselves subscribed nearly $3,000. Our citizens are responding very satisfactorily, and the money will be secured beyond doubt.

CANINE TENDERNESS.—A curious instance of maternal tenderness in the canine race was stated the other day at a sitting of the Societe d'Acclimatation in Paris. A poor dog, being deprived of her pups, took a fancy to a young lamb that had lost its mother. The lamb throve mightily well under the regime of dog's milk, and at length took to feeding on grass. This the poor foster mother could not bear, and she attempted by every means in her power to prevent her foster child from disgracing itself by such uncanine behavior, but found at length it was to no purpose, and resigned herself to her disappointment.

LATE NEWS ITEMS.

The extensive soap and candle works of Thos. Emery and Sons, corner of Vine and Water streets, Cincinnati, was destroyed by fire yesterday morning.

Private advices from New Orleans state that the Radical Unionists expect to carry the city at the coming municipal election.

There was a sufficient fall of snow yesterday morning in New York to cover the ground.

It is said that two-thirds of the six hundred thousand dollars contributed in New York for the relief of the sufferers by the great Portland fire, still remain in the hands of the committee.

A mass meeting of colored citizens was held at the African Church, in New York, Thurday evening, to discuss the question, "How shall we vote?" About fifteen hundred persons were present. The speakers were both white and colored. Resolutions were unanimously adopted pledging the colored voters' support to the candidates of the Republican party, and no other.

The Merchants' Hotel, corner of State and Washington streets Chicago, was destroyed by fire yesterday forenoon. Loss one hundred and fifty thousand dollars. Several of the art rooms in the Crosby Opera House were considerably damaged by water.

A Washington special says: Governor Cunmings, recently confirmed Internal Revenue Collector of the Fourth District of Pennsylvania, has not accepted the latter position or resigned the Governorship, and the indications are that he will return to Colorado.

The Commissioner of Indian Affairs has received information from E. W. Wynkoop, Indian Agent for the Arrapahoe, Cheyenne and Apache bands of Indians, dated Fort Dodge, Kansas, April 21st, announcing that on the 19th of April, General Hancock burned an Indian village consisting of three hundred lodges, of Sioux and Cheyennes. He also states that six Cheyenne Indians were killed by a squad of cavalry about twenty-five miles from the fort.

A New York special of yesterday says: At Absecom, N. J., about eight o'clock this morning, Mr. James Yates, residing near here, killed his little grandchild by staking it on the head with a hatchet, and then went to his own house and hung himself in his room.

The Herald's Panama correspondence says the parties contending for the future ownership of the Panama railroad were making quite a lively fight over the matter. The holders of thirty millions of bonds in England have offered the whole of their securities, together with a large amount of money, for the road, but the present owners have bid yet higher, and it was probable that it would still remain in their hands.

The Herald's Charleston special says: On Senator Wilson's arrival in this city, several committees and distinguished citizens, also, a number of colored men, called upon him. Some sixty or seventy prominent whites, including a large number of former leading secessionists, signed a letter of welcome to Mr. Wilson, tendering the hospitalities of the city, and inviting him to address them on the political topics of the day.

An Indianapolis dispatch of yesterday, says: The money stolen from the Railroad office at Gosport, and the clothes of the murderer, Willis McMinaway, were found buried under an ash hopper in McMinniway's yard. The money and clothes are bloody. Another man implicated has been arrested. The excitement is increasing, and it is feared that the citizens will hang them before night. McMinniway is a citizen of Gosport, and had been assisting Johns in loading freights and collecting freight bills. His wife says he did not come home till twelve o'clock on the night of the murder, and left at five o'clock in the morning for Quincy.

The Herald's Chile correspondence says that the Spanish fleet have not re-appeared in the Pacific. Since the resignation and departure of Admiral Tucker courtesies had been resumed between the Chilean and United States vessels. Work on the Valparaiso fortifications was being pushed ahead with vigor. The harbor was full of war vessels. The Russian and American naval officers fraternized with one another, but both were coldly civil to the French and English.

The Herald's Havana correspondent says: The revolution in Hayti is still in full activity. No election for President had taken place, and General Nisage continued to exercise the functions of Provisional President. General Victorine looms up as the chief of the revolutionists, and had proceeded with troops and cannon to St. Marie to oppose Salnave. Several French war vessels were expected there to enforce the payment of claims due under the treaty stipulations entered into at the establishment of Haytien Independence.

For Churches.

Every congregation which can afford even a very moderate expense, say one hundred dollars or more, can now secure a good organ. Until recently, such instruments have not been obtainable. Large pipe organs are too costly, and occupy too much space for any but a few of the wealthiest congregations worshiping in the largest churches. The melodeon lacks power and volume of tone, and harmoniums and small reed organs generally have been so unsatisfactory in quality of tone as to be undesirable.

In the Cabinet Organ these insufficiencies and defects are remedied. Its great volume and true organ tones, with its admirable capacity for expression, better adapt it to sacred music than any other instrument, excepting only the large pipe organ. Observe what Rev. Dr. PRIME, the well-known editor of the New York Observer, says of it in this respect. He styles it "a glorious instrument for the temple service," and tells why it is so. Dr. LOWELL MASON, than whom no one has had more experience in church music, writes:

"I regard Mason & Hamlin's Cabinet Organs as likely to be of important service to the cause of Church Music, inasmuch as they are really very effective and beautiful accompanying instruments for sacred song; while the low prices at which they are afforded render them very generally available. After a year's experience in the use of one of them in Divine service, I can recommend these instruments with confidence for Sabbath-schools, Vestries and smaller Churches.

As in churches volume or power of tone is so important a requisite, it is better to obtain at least a double-reed Cabinet Organ for this use. An instrument with four octaves' compass is sufficient for the accompaniment of church music generally, but one having five octaves is better, enabling the performer to double the bass, as it is termed, and so considerably increase the power. The larger instruments, with three, four, and six sets of reeds, have proportionately greater volume, with very much increased power.

A single-reed Cabinet Organ has considerably more power than any single-reed melodeon. A double-reed Cabinet Organ has at least three or four times as much power as such a melodeon. The largest-sized Cabinet Organ has not less than ten times the volume of tone of the melodeon. This will give some indication of the capacity of the instruments, and afford a guide to purchasers.

Yet it must not be supposed that the largest Cabinet Organ equals, or nearly equals, in volume of tone, a large pipe organ, which costs ten or twenty times as much.

It is safe to say that no pipe organ can be built for less than double the cost of a Cabinet Organ, which will equal the latter in power and quality of tone, and variety of effect. The Cabinet Organ has the additional advantages of keeping in tune vastly better, and of less liability to get out of order, in any respect, besides that of occupying less room.

The Cabinet Organ is, therefore, not offered as a sufficient substitute for large pipe organs, costing three to fifty thousand dollars each; but it is offered as a very great improvement, not only upon melodeons, harmoniums, and all other reed organs, but also upon small pipe organs; as quite sufficient for churches and halls of moderate size, and in all respects better, as well as lower-priced, than small, cheap pipe organs. It is within the reach of almost every congregation, because almost every one will be able, by proper exertion, to raise at least enough to buy one of the smaller instruments: it will add very greatly to the attraction and usefulness of the music; will draw people to the church, and help to do them good while there; it occupies so little space that a place can easily be found for it; it is durable, and will keep in good tune; it can easily be obtained, for every one is boxed for shipping (without charge), and can be easily sent anywhere by ordinary freight routes.

RICH BISHOPS IN A POOR COUNTRY.—The oppressive character of the Established Church in Ireland is well shown by a list recently published in England of the Bishops who have died in the former Island since 1822, and of the assets left by each, in hard cash, exclusive of real property the deceased may have purchased and independent of any settlements that each may have made on the members of his family. The list begins with the Bishop of Cashel, who contrived to put by $400,000. Three others died with loose cash exceeding $350,000 each; another with $275,000, and so on. The average of the whole was $200,000, and the aggregate was $4,300,000! And yet the English Church comprises less than one-eighth the people of Ireland—a country that has been growing poorer and poorer since 1822, and pouring off its life blood through every emigrant ship. No wonder. It is as difficult to teach the Christianity as the political policy of such an overgrown and rapacious system of ecclesiastical oppression. This, more than anything, or all else, is Ireland's real cause of discontent.

THE present Duke of Wellington is said to have reduced his income by extravagant expenditures, from seven hundred and fifty thousand dollars a year. He ...

Woman Suffrage in England.

The controversy in England about woman suffrage is going on with undiminished intensity. The ladies, who have chiefly been writing on the subject of late, have been Madame Bodichon, Miss Cobbe and Miss S. D. Collet—the latter being the only lady I have heard of yet, who, having the ability to write, uses it against the enfranchisement of her sex. The controversy has been going on sharply in the Spectator. We hear now and then of little events which show that the popular mind is advancing in this matter, e. g.: On Wednesday last, at the Barnstable Petty Sessions, two ladies were elected parish overseers—Mrs. Slocombe for the parish of Brittadon, and Mrs. Crang for the Bratton Fleming. Lately, the House of Commons had two great petitions laid before it on the subject of the woman suffrage. Mr. Mill presented one signed by three thousand of both sexes, some resident near Manchester, and some at Oxford and Cambridge—the mention of which university towns seemed to excite some mirth among members. The other was presented by Mrs. Russell Gurney, which, he said, was numerously signed by persons who had every qualification for the suffrage, except sex. Whereupon there were cries of "hear" mingled with laughter. Mr. Herbert Spencer has, I regret to say, changed his mind on the subject. He was formerly favorable to woman suffrage, but is not now.

HOMICIDE IN FUN.—Unintentional murder, or homicide in fun, is a prevalent species of carelessness that is almost equivalent to crime. It is usually the result of reckless handling of fire-arms, and some check upon the perilous practice ought to be devised. It should, indeed, be made a misdemeanor for any person, even in play, to point at another any kind of explosive weapon, no matter whether or not it is loaded. Only last Sunday a party of pleasure in St. Louis was turned into a group of horror stricken mourners, by a fatal accident thus caused to a young lady. The unfortunate victim, a Miss Brinkman, had thrown some kind of missile at Mr. Blanke, who had a double-barrelled shot gun in his hand. Not dreaming, of course, that there was anything in it, he pointed it at her, jokingly saying "I'll shoot you." The next moment the discharge took place and the contents of the gun were lodged in the poor girl's face. She died in a few minutes. It will be said that the grief and remorse this young man must feel are punishment enough. Granted; but punishment is not exactly what is required. What we want is fear of prospective penalty which shall make people habitually cautious. There is a certain class of thoughtless minds upon which no impression can be made, except by something tangible, like fine or imprisonment. Thus, it has been found in England that, while risk of life would not prevent people jumping off railroad cars while in motion, a fine of a few shillings effectually put a stop to the practice. In the same way there would be no more trifling with fowling-pieces and six-shooters, if the amusement were known to involve a certainty of two or three weeks' incarceration.

PROCRASTINATION is the thief of time; yet, in the case of two parties who are playing any kind of hostile game, delay must be of advantage to one or the other. It is evidently Napoleon's policy at the present moment, and the bold, vigorous action with which Bismarck would thwart it appears to be paralyzed by the impracticableness of the Prussian radicals and the disposition of King William to "let I dare not wait upon I would." The Emperor has seen such marvellous changes transpire, and such strange combinations formed in the course of a year that he has come to look upon the natural workings which are evolved in lapse of time with almost as confident an optimism as that for which our own Mr. Seward is distinguished. He calculates that within that period Italy will have forgotten her new obligations to Prussia, and return to the first gratitude that inspired her after Magenta and Solferino; that Bavaria and Saxony and Hanover will chafe under their enforced absorption into a distasteful German Empire, and that Austria, with that marvellous recuperative faculty she has so often shown before, will, under the careful nursing of a really great statesman like Von Beust, once more regain the influential position she has for centuries held in Europe, and be worth cultivating as a powerful ally. Napoleon has one advantage over Bismarck. When it pleases him to strike there is no one to hold him back, while his rival's arm is poised for what ought to be a fatal blow, is at any moment liable to have its force arrested by a factious political opposition or a timerous King.

SOME time ago the Internal Revenue Assessors of New England met in convention, and agreed that, in laying assessments on incomes, losses on stocks should not be deducted, being, as they contended, diminution of capital, not income. Commissioner Rollins, in answer to a letter from a gentleman in Boston, who had brought the matter to his attention, writes that after mature deliberation he has decided that difference between the cost of stocks and the price at which the owner actually sold, in transactions within the year for which the return is made, may be deducted from the aggregate income.

IT appears from a paragraph in the Atlanta New Era, that since the correspondence between General Pope and Governor Jenkins, these two gentlemen have had a personal interview, which is said to have been of the most pleasant and satisfactory character. The Era adds that if the whisperers, toadies, and meddlers generally, can be forced to take back seats, no fears need be entertained of harmonious relations between the General and the Governor in the future. If the Governor does not impede the execution of the law, there will be no trouble.

The Western Pennsylvania Military Academy.

This institution has received its charter from the State, and may now be said to be ready to enter upon its career as one of the prominent military schools of the country. The trustees under the Act of Incorporation are, Robt. Finney, Jr., A. S. Bell, Jas. Park, Jr., H. Brady Wilkins, James M. Cooper, Jno. McD. Crossan, Wm. K. Nimick, Thos. H. Lane, C. Yeager, T. J. Bingham, Geo. H. Holtzman and T. F. Lehmann,—five of whom may be a quorum, and who are authorized to organize by the election of a President, Secretary, &c. In a few days, a call for the purpose of organization will be made.

One of the sections of the charter authorizes the State to furnish "arms for Infantry, Artillery and Cavalry Drill, together with tents and other camp Equipage." This provision places the Western Pennsylvania Military Academy upon the best footing possible, and ensures all the facilities for a thorough military education.

Besides this speciality—which includes discipline of the highest order—the Academy offers all the advantages of a complete general education. Section 61 of the charter provides, that "The said Board of Trustees shall be required to furnish at said Academy constantly a course of military instruction, both theoretical and practical; also civil and military engineering, and the practical sciences generally, together with instruction in the Latin, Greek, French and German languages, and shall have power to confer the usual degrees," &c.

As we have therefore at least an Academy here combining all the advantages enjoyed by the best schools of the country, we look for such encouragement as it deserves at the hands of our citizens. Address for circulars, Col. T. F. Lehmann, box 493 Allegheny, Pa., or call upon the trustees above named.

SATURDAY, MAY 4, 1867.

MR. SEWARD, it is reported from Auburn, seriously entertains the purpose to retire from political life. He has done a good deal of service since he entered it, and he has had a good degree of success. But the mutations, for which political life is proverbial, have not, of late, been auspicious to his life-long aspirations. Not as far on in the race as he once was, or as others are, he is wise, we think, in voluntarily and quietly retiring from the course. The times require, for active, executive functions, men with less weight of years upon them. Mr. SEWARD's record of public life, should it close with his present office, is an uncommonly fair one. Only one or two items would we wish different. He will have no reason to impugn the gratitude of Republics. Parties are less reliable. He has meant well, undoubtedly, to both.

MR. DAVIS's incarceration, if such it can be called, has probably been a merciful arrangement for him. He has had a degree of seclusion which must have been more agreeable than the gaze of the public eye, that would have painfully reminded him of his fallen condition. He has been saved also the sight of the ruins, caused by his unhallowed ambition, until some little effort of industry and the rains and sunshine of those seasons shall have done something towards veiling them. He has been out of the reach of the bitter reproaches which a wronged people would have heaped upon him. His power of mischief has probably exhausted itself in the past. It makes little difference now, whether J. DAVIS stay in Fortress Monroe or go abroad among the conspirators and dupes of the secession. We would be almost willing to hand him over to ANDREW JOHNSON, to be disposed of according to his humor.

THERE is a good deal in having a warm side toward a thing, to make us magnify its good qualities and overlook its bad ones; and there is a good deal in a thing's being ours, to give us a warm side toward it. How differently the tip end of the continent, pointing to Asia, appears since it became a part of the United States. The dreary snow plains have a sort of sunny glow shed over them, the Esquimaux are advanced a degree in the scale of humanity and of social life, and the walrusses and seals have a domestic look. We are pleased with our Arctic accession. It is pleasant, too, to learn that the Russians are pleased with the bargain too, in as much as the country was worth nothing, they say, to them, and that they could not have retained it, if it had been ever so valuable, in case of a war with France or England. We believe that Yankee enterprise will find it to be, or, in default of that, make it to be worth all we gave for it.

IT IS GRATIFYING to see the finances and business recovering so promptly from the momentary disorder into which they were thrown by a European rumor, which after all turned out to be a false one. Had it been true, it need not have created the alarm, nor have produced the effects, that it did, on the funds, the price of gold or general business. And we take the occasion to reiterate a sentiment we have often expressed, that there is no need to be so sensitive to European affairs in our business arrangements, or, if there is present need for it, the first thing should be done is, to put our business affairs into a more independent condition, so that they will not draw their breath of life at the mercy of European politics and European potentates. We should not owe so much abroad or have so much owing to us, that our business circles will be liable to a pause, by any vagrant telegram that may get on to the Atlantic cable, announcing quarrels between European Sovereigns.

WHAT SHALL BE OUR RAILROAD POLICY?

The time has come when we should look around and see what can be done during the Summer to prepare for choosing the next Legislature. During last Winter Pittsburgh gained something. She has secured a road by the Pine Creek route to the West. Perhaps by indirect legislation she has gained something to the southeast in lieu of the Connellsville and the northeast in the direction of New York. Time, which tries all things, will develop the rumors that have reached us on both these points.

But Pittsburgh is only asking her rights in railroad legislation. We should demand these openly, directly—not by stealth or indirection. Last year both the candidates for Governor pledged themselves to a Free Railroad policy, and Gov. GEARY recognized his pledge in his veto message and various other ways. But in 1867 we cannot ask the candidates for Supreme Judge to give pledges to the people on this subject. Therefore our policy should be to secure pledges from both the Democratic and Union State Conventions. The Democratic Convention meets first, and we hope the Western delegates will see to it that such a pledge is given.

We would call upon the Union County Conventions in Western Pennsylvania to see to it that the delegates have instructions on this subject. We hope to see our Allegheny delegation composed of faithful friends of Judge WILLIAMS, and equally firm friends of a liberal Free Railroad policy.

General GEARY lost no votes, but gained many, last fall, by his pledges, and the Union party of 1867 will lose none, but will be the gainer, by this open and manly policy now. We hope the County Convention will give us delegates up to the demands of the hour on this point.

We invite the Democratic State Convention to face the music. If it does, of course ours will follow suit; if it should fail, then we shall still more strongly invoke positive action by the Union State Convention. In this way alone can the cause of the mass of the people be promoted.

THE horrible case of child-whipping which lately occurred at Norwich, Connecticut, is a delightful example of one of the diabolical effects of spiritualism. Williams, the brutal mono-maniac, and the fiendish woman—a niece of the late Horace Mann—who lived with him, spent nearly two months in torturing the unfortunate daughter of the former, almost starving her to death, gagging her till her lips cracked with drought and fever, whipping her with a raw-hide till the blood streamed from her—sometimes as often as six or eight times a day—and keeping her in a cold dark room till her feet were frozen; and the mean excuse of the male devil on his trial was, that he had acted in obedience to the directions of the spirits. He further declared that Miss Mann first suggested the discipline of the child; that Miss Mann suggested the gag; he said he had never struck the child until Miss Mann came to the house, and that he never should if she had not come, although he believed she meant to do right; Miss Mann was the controlling spirit and had got the upper hand of him. It is some consolation to know the paltry wretch was sentenced to five years imprisonment. Somehow or other, though, the woman managed to escape punishment.

A LEADING manufacturing house in Chicago which has been employing a hundred and fifty men, has issued a circular in which the workmen are told that the proprietors, having carefully considered the eight hour question, find that it is impossible to run their wo[rks] ... fully on the terms propo[sed] ... They are will[ing] ...

GENERAL INTELLIGENCE.

Smaller amounts of money have been deposited in the savings banks of New York for the past month than previously; the retail trade is sensibly affected; while painters, glaziers, house carpenters and masons are overrun with orders requiring many weeks to fill them. When to this condition of things is added the fact that the principal mechanics are on a strike, and there is an embarrassment among employees because of the eight-hour bill now lying on the table of Governor Fenton, concerning which his purpose is well known, it is easy to perceive that domestic affairs in this city are in a very peculiar situation.

A Rio letter says: The culture of corn and rice having been neglected during the last year, these grains have reached extraordinary prices. In a letter from Dr. Reinhardt, who has resided many years in the Province of St. Paulo, he assures me that the drought does not there destroy the crops, except now and then when the rice is planted on the hills, but that the dryest season has produced the best crop of corn, and should there be a failure in the present experiment in cotton planting, it will be owing to the rain. Some Southern planters have purchased land in the district of Campinus, and are attracting the attention of the Brazilians by using the plow and other implements, and the dealers in these articles are driving a brisk trade.

Beef grown in Australia is offered for sale in London. It is not salted, but is the best Australian beef, carefully stewed and packed in tins hermetically sealed. It is offered for sale at 14 cents a pound, without bone. To import beef at this rate into America might pay.

The first criminals sent to the South Carolina State Penitentiary, since the war, are two white men from the Williamsburg district, for stealing bacon from a freedman.

The omission of Italy from the great powers called to consult on the Luxemburg question, excites considerable comment. Surely, with her newly acquired territory and her 24,000,000 of population, she is entitled to rank among the "first."

Two boys who robbed a firm in New York of $10,000 in gold checks, and have been the rounds of Canada, England, where they were robbed of $6,000, and France, got finally to Baltimore and having spent all their money, notified the New York chief of police that they were ready to give themselves up, and are now in jail.

The celebrated dragon tree of Oratavo, in the Canary Islands, which has been known and used as a landmark for centuries by seamen of all nations, exists no longer. The hurricane of the 8th ult., which caused considerable damage in those islands, uprooted it. The tree had a very peculiar shape, and its age was estimated at over 1,000 years.

A Southern telegraph company, with $500,000 capital, has organized under the presidency of Kirby Smith. It will connect Cincinnati and St. Louis with New Orleans and Mobile.

The Henderson (N. C.) Index says: "Never since the 'late so-called' went up has money been so scarce as now in this region. Even a counterfeit, ragged twenty-five cent greenback would refresh our gaze; but times will improve soon. Our tobacco crop will go into market about the first of May and June. The wheat crop in this section is unprecedentedly fine, and if no accident happens to it, the yield will be better than for years. Under these circumstances we can grin and bear it a while longer."

A Far-West battle hymn, to the air "King of the Canibal Islands," begins thus:

> Oh, how absurd philanthropists prate
> About the "unfortunate Indian's fate;"
> They'd change their ideas if they saw the rate
> That we massacre on the prairies.
> For we gobble emigrants every day,
> And capture forts unweariedly,
> And scalp the garrisons jollily,
> As we massacre on the prairies.
> Singing—Rioting, ravaging Navajoes,
> Comanches, Blackfeet, Sioux and Crows.
> There's not a sensible white man but knows
> That we're masters of the prairies.

The Lawrence (Mass.) American says that nearly all the persons who struck for the ten-hour system in the factories have gone back to work, when they could obtain it, under the old system. Many of them have been suffering for the necessaries of life during the term they were unemployed.

PERSONAL.

—Mr. John F. Winslow, who for the past thirty years has held a large proprietorship in the Albany Iron Works in the Sixth Ward of Troy, has recently disposed of his interest to his Albany partners, Erastus Corning and Erastus Corning, Jr. Mr. Winslow retains his proprietary connection with the Bessemer Steel Manufactory, the Rensselaer Works, and the Blast Furnaces at Hudson and Fort Edward.

—A Nashville paper informs us that Miss Anna D., the charming and accomplished eldest daughter of Lieutenant General William J. Hardee, was led to the altar on the 24th instant, by Major N. R. Chambliss, a distinguished officer in the late Confederate States Army.

—The illness of the Princess of Wales in England has caused both the Prince and Princess and their medical advisers to be overwhelmed with letters of advice and recommendation. All kinds of embrocations and medicines have been sent; the most varied specimens of leather, felt and splinters for the limbs affected with rheumatism, and about one thousand medical prescriptions. One good soul, it is said, recommends "that a potato be worn," and a lady sends a large piece of ordinary oil silk, which she is sure, from her own experience, will effect a cure.

—A corporal in the French army, named Houdat, has been lecturing at Abbi, on "Erasmus and German Literature in the Sixteenth Century." There are many privates in the French army almost or quite as well informed as this corporal.

—The Empress Eugenie has had an attack of illness, it is rumored, on account of a scandalous pamphlet sent to her by Braro, the Spanish Minister of the Interior. This vile publication purports to give "revelations" concerning the early life of the Empress.

—Sidney Smith used to say that it would be a lucky day for Ireland when Irishmen gave up crying out "Erin-go-bragh," and adopted as their watchwords instead, "Erin-go-bread and cheese," "Erin-go-breeches without holes in them." That's exactly what they mean by emigrating to America.

—John R. Elvans, a Washington merchant, has paid $52,000 for a large farm just outside of the city which he will divide up into lots of from one to five acres to be sold to the freedmen. The proceeds of all such sales are to be devoted to educational institutions for the education of colored youth. Mr. Elvans is an earnest Republican and one of the best citizens of Washington.

—Nasby avows that Mr. Seward negotiated the purchase of the Russian territory in order to make the Blair family its governors. He describes the President asking: "Will the ablishen Senate ratify the treaty?" And Mr. Seward answers: "I conversed with many on the subjick, and they said, if we could promise that the Blairs would accept posishens there, they would do it cheerfly. For sich a purpose," said one of them to me, "$7,000,000 is a mere bagatelle."

—A Miss Emily Schaumburg, of Philadelphia, who is described as very beautiful, with a moderately tall and slender form, and a clear ringing voice and laugh, is creating a sensation in private theatrical circles of that city. The Prince of Wales pronounced her "the handsomest woman he had seen in America." She has played at the Amateur theater three times; once in the presence of Ristori in the "Wife's Secret," and in that of Lester Wallack, who declared afterwards that if she would appear on the stage she would win a fame superior to that of "any high comedy lady who had ever trod the boards in America."

"WE must draw the line somewheres," as Mr. Lillyvick's barber in "Nicholas Nickleby" remarked, when he declined shaving the dustman, notwithstanding he had just performed that operation on the baker. A distinction of somewhat similar delicacy appears to be made in the matter of membership in the New York Union Club. We are told that it is formed entirely of gentlemen of wealth and eminent merchants—no retail dealers being admitted, "except Mr. A. T. Stewart." Clearly Stewart is the line in this instance. Probably they only accept him, for fear he should buy them out, club-house and all, at some inconvenient moment when they would be least prepared for it.

SOME of the speeches made to the immense eight hour gathering in Chicago on Wednesday were very incendiary in their tone, and calculated to increase the trouble which the untenable demands of the leading agitators among the working class have already caused. Public men, like the Hon. H. F. Kuykendall, ought to know better than to tell an excited crowd that Capital and Labor never did and never would agree; that their interests were opposed to each other, and that Labor ought by right to control Capital. Any man who would give utterance to such opinions before such an audience is a very mischievous demagogue, and one whose advice his hearers will, in the end, find it ruinous to follow.

THE Paris letter in the Tribune of the 2d contains by far the best and most complete description of the Exhibition that has appeared. The writer says "the United States Department is found on examination to fall below the expectations of foreigners and friends." The great Patterson locomotive is the most noticeable American contribution. Of the Exposition itself, the writer says "it is a success," excelling that of London in 1862. He predicts there will be no disappointment.

SOME people have singular ways of indicating their sympathies. Thus, for instance, it being the custom with Southern newspapers to always say, "such or such a thing happened on yesterday," nearly all the journals North, that were Copperhead during the war and that now parade their affection for the South so demonstratively, also use the superfluous preposition. Its presence in the connection referred to is an unerring test of the political predelections and proclivities of a writer.

IT is said that Edwin Booth has ordered of one of the Boston jewelers a crown of solid gold, in which he will play Richard III. If we remember rightly Richard never had a coronation and on no occasion wore the insignia of his royal rank. He did not even have the lions on his shield, and was recognized upon the field of Bosworth by the famous "blue boar," which, as Duke of Glos'ter, he had so often made a terror to his foes.

APRIL VIOLETS.

BY LYDIA M. RENO.

> Blue violets, my love, I found them peeping
> Forth from the shelter of a little mound,
> Where cold and chill the April wind was sweeping
> Along the ground.
>
> They are to me an offering, pure and lowly,
> Meekly bedewed with quiet, shining tears,
> Recalling tenderest dreams and visions holy,
> Of faded years.

Rochester, Pa.

A Virginia View of the Situation.

The Virginia Legislature adjourned on Monday. Before the close of the session, Mr. Baldwin, Speaker of the House of Delegates, addressed the members, and said that he never looked to a future more threatening and less full of promise. He and all present had passed through the greatest civil wars; and in the darkest hour of that disastrous struggle he never saw so much occasion for despondency and depression as at this time. It was impossible for any one to foresee the result of the present dangerous experiment in Virginia.

Although, said Mr. B., we cannot claim to be free, nor claim that Virginia is a State, yet we are an organized community, and have a right to expect to be free, and that Virginia will be a State. But the situation of public affairs at this time, with the new element introduced by the United States into the political arena, present a problem whose solution justified great anxiety for the public tranquility and welfare. This new element, under the most favorable circumstances would be matter of concern; but when subject to the maddening influence of party spirit and agitations of partisans, it became a subject of the gravest consideration and apprehension.

THEY have a genuine American institution connected with the Paris Exposition, namely: a bar room. Writers do not as yet mention whether Monongahela (mixed with a little—just a little—Allegheny,) is relished there as much as it is here, or whether potations of any particular sort are having a run. But, it is said the proprietors are "making a good thing" out of it. The French are great at detecting ingenious things—for which reason, unless better liquors are dealt out than are dispensed to the ruin of untold thousands in our own country, we may assume, for a certainty, the institution will exist only for a limited period.

RECONSTRUCTION OF THE CABINET.—Postmaster General Randall took occasion, a few days since, to place in the hands of the President his resignation, that the vacancy thus to be created in the Cabinet might be filled by appointment of a citizen of one of the Southern States, now unrepresented at the executive council table. The President, while appreciating the motives which prompted the Postmaster General, declined to accept his resignation. If the Secretary of War was to tender his portfolio, there is little reason to believe that it would be declined.—Washington letter.

THE New York Commercial says: Mrs. Harriet Beecher Stowe is in Brooklyn on a brief visit. She intends to make Florida her permanent home, having bought property in that State. She has become a member of the Episcopal Church. It is scarcely violating the sanctity of private affairs to state that the latter years of Mrs. Stowe's life are clouded by a deep sorrow for the tragic death of her sons, but she sustains her afflictions by a genuine piety that finds vent in verse and prose.

Its timely application has been the means of saving thousands of valuable lives, of relieving a vast amount of suffering, and wherever used, has proved itself in reality A BOON TO SUFFERING HUMANITY.

Sixty Years' General Use of the Russia Salve is a Noble Guarantee of its Incomparable Virtues as a Healing Ointment.

The very large sale of REDDING'S RUSSIA SALVE, during the past sixty years, has given rise to hundreds of unworthy imitations, but throughout all opposition, the RUSSIA SALVE maintains its supremacy as a reliable preparation, having a steady and permanent sale, and never deteriorating in quality, by age or climate, and is sold to dealers at a price enabling them to realize a generous profit by its sale. For sale by all Druggists and Apothecaries.

THE BIBLE FOR THE POOR.

An Address Delivered Before the Young Men's Bible Society, by Rev. Alexander Clark, Pastor of the First Methodist Church, on Monday Evening, April 29, in the First Baptist Church, Pittsburgh.

There is a familiar story of a Welsh clergyman ... text of his last sermon. The child gave no answer; she only w... ascertained that she had no Bible in which to look for the text. And this fact led him to inquire whether her parents and neighbors had Bibles. Then this inquiry and its answers led to the meeting in London, in 1804, of a few devoted Christians, to devise means to supply the poor in Wales with the ... and ... of which was the ... the formation of the British and Foreign Bible Society—a society which has already distributed more than 50,000,000 of copies of the Bible, its issues ... a million and a half every year. And this effort, ... led to the formation of the American Bible Society, and to the whole beautiful cluster of sister institutions throughout the world, all of which now stand and grow in the free sunlight as so many trees of life, scattering from among their rustling leaves the golden-fruited words of immortality upon the nations of the earth.

To change the figure and view this wonderful influence as a river, how deep and broad and clear and free it is! And yet, from its irresistible flow as it widens and rises, all the way back to its beginning, we may trace this stream that makes glad the world, to a little fountain of tears gushing from the eyes of a pauper child!

The heart of this little girl in the obscurity of the Welsh hills became a new center for out-circling light and love, in the beauty of printed pages, even as the same influences first began at the blessed Child-heart in Bethlehem in the music of angel voices.

When the world was dark and desolate in sin, when superstition and idolatry everywhere prevailed, when man had almost sealed his utter destruction, and when, among the millions of an apostate race, but a weary few remembered and trusted the promise of a Messiah, then in the midnight hour the Lord made bare his arm for our redemption. The lowly shepherds who lingered in the fields watching the sheep, believed the prophets. They pondered the promises. In the still and silent night, under the beautiful light of the high-hung chandelier of stars, they gazed upward wonderingly waiting for the Messiah. Late one evening, as a little neighborly company of these Judean shepherds were seated on the ground, doubtless talking over their hopes and fears, while the cool dews were falling upon the pastures, while the flocks were companied in little groups and quietly reposing, while winds were still, and stars twinkling as if they would smile the heavenly secret down to earth, suddenly over the solitude of the Bethlehem hills a brilliant light shone round! Lo! a radiant circle of morning at midnight! It was the glory of the Lord. How with fear and amazement the poor shepherds looked into each other's faces, and clasped each other's hands, and whispered each other's names in the marvelous light! How pale their cheeks! How bright their eyes! How tremulous their voices! How thrilled and throbbing their hearts!

The angel sees their consternation, and says, "Fear not, fear not; for behold I bring you glad tidings of great joy which shall be to all people, for unto you this day"—how early the news—this day—and the angel of this day is earlier than its sun!—THIS DAY, "in the city of David, a Saviour, who is Christ the Lord."

That was the first gospel preached to dying men. And it warbled in tones of music from the tongue of an angel. What a rapturous beginning! The new gospel of peace proclaimed first of all to poor men in the fields at night by an angel itinerant from heaven!

No wonder the angels rejoiced. The shining ones had been watching and listening from the battlements of the celestial city—looking far down to the dark plains of Bethlehem, and to the astonished shepherds, and to their own sister angel singing the good news into the ears of mortal men, so that the shepherds could restrain their music no longer, they could stay away no longer, they could keep their wings folded no longer, and instantly a choral multitude of them joined the solo of the herald, and the heavenly host shouted a chorus of triumph, praising God, saying, "Glory to God in the highest, and on earth peace, good will toward men."

The angel said that the gospel should be joy to all people; and its Divine Author himself says, "Preach the gospel to every creature." It comes to all. It brings blessings to all. It never discriminates; it never changes; it never ends. It never grows old, and never wearies the ear like the languaged opinions and histories of men. Many generations of its preachers are in their graves, and the thousands now living and proclaiming the glad tidings of salvation, will soon sleep in the dust; and the lips that pronounced it, and the ears that were charmed with its sweet sound, and the eyes that moistened at its deep meaning, and the hearts that bounded at its wonderful love—all shall soon be confined under ground; but the Gospel, O the everlasting Gospel! "heaven and earth shall pass away, but my word shall not pass away," saith the Lord.

Other systems of religion have changed with the ages, and compromised with the new-fashioned Satanisms of the times. Other systems have been modeled to suit popular opinion, and shaped to fit a warped and crooked policy. But this Gospel, eternal and immutable as its author, is "the same, yesterday, and to-day, and for ever."

Creeds and confessions tend to establish sects and hamper professors to narrowness of love, but the Bible sings of angel charities and breathes them by its Spirit through all the human brotherhood. The Bible is broader than bounds and stronger than bands, teaching and exemplifying a double affection—an upward, to God, and an outward, to man, wielding in this Mighty Cross a power of love which the combined forces of earth and hell can not withstand.

Men have sometimes prayed for more visible manifestations of this gospel power among men, but they prayed with hands folded too close to help, and with eyes shut too close to see the sufferer, were he standing asking for the word of life within finger touch in prayer time.

There was a time when men prayed not so especially that the gospel might be sent to the heathen, as that ships be sent abroad and cruel men to catch and bind the heathen, hand and foot, and bring them to the gospel. Those hateful ships had borne better ballast by taking free Bibles abroad than by bringing captive mortals here. The command was not, "Go ye into some part of the world and steal the creature to the gospel," but "Go ye into all the world, and preach the gospel to every creature." Bless God! better days are breaking. The time is at hand when Bibles shall be in dusky hands till lately fetter-bound. The Bible has in it the only ties that shall inseparably reunite these partially dissevered States of America. For men have been proud and oppressive. Men in authority in church and state have attempted to monopolize the blessings of the Bible. Magnificent churches, on fashionable streets in great cities, have been erected, and gilded, and cushioned, and tinseled, and pew-locked, as refineries, where the Bible might run through a process of creed cramping and pulpit stuffing to please the ecclesiastical upper orders—the privileges, the honors; the treasury-ships, the feastings, the exaltations, and the crowns all ingeniously selected and parceled out in glittering packages for the front pews and the Brussels carpeted parlors of Christendom; and the self-denials, the sacrifices, the humilities, the fastings, the prayings, the persecutions, and the crosses, all put up in assorted proportions and sold to the gallery seats, and distributed among the poor. And because religionists have climbed to such presumption, tramping the poor man's Bible under foot, denying neighbor and brother, doubting the patient Father, it pleases the Almighty to interpose, and He will "magnify His word" in all its broad meanings, and establish justice and truth on the ruins of our broken idols. The great significance of the events passing into history these very days, is a preparation of the nations for a welcome to the Bible. Bible principles are progressive, thorough, impartial and triumphant. And with this book in all the people's hands, open and free from cumbrous comment, studied, remembered, believed,—lived in daily work, as well as read in Sabbath worship,—knowledge shall increase and grace shall have growth, and the heavenly kingdom shall come. With this book as the church's only guide and the nation's only code thought shall leap out in happy recognition of thought, hither and thither into all events, into all eras, into all relations, into all circumstances of life—the inquiring mind running to and fro gathering facts, comparing principles, social, political, scientific and religious, and by every pulse-beat of life—humble, working life—weaving these golden threaded lines into a vesture of beauty in which the world may rise and greet the coming Lord. The lessons that all the nations need to learn—that every ... shall most enjoy—are the lessons of the blessed Bible just as they read and as the Holy Spirit shows their meaning.

In the diffusion of this word among the people, translated to the tongue of every race, speaking to the hearts of all at home, the Young Men's Bible Society uses its agencies; and to strengthen, and direct, and encourage these agencies, until all the world's poor shall be reached with the message the angels sang to the shepherds, are the friends of the Bible met to-night to talk, and pray, and give.

THE POSTOFFICE.—Postmaster McClelland gives notice that hereafter the office will be open on Sunday morning, from 7½ till 8½ o'clock.

BASE BALL.—The Hygeia Base Ball Club, of this city, have accepted a challenge from the Steubenville B. B. Club, and will play a match game in Steubenville this afternoon.

BRICK MOULDERS ADVANCE.—At a meeting of the Brick Moulders' Union, of this city, held on Thursday evening, it was resolved to ask an advance of ten cents per hundred on inside work, or three dollars per day for outside work. Monday next has been fixed for the proposed change. The employers have been notified to the above effect.

FAIR AND FESTIVAL.—A fair and festival for the benefit of the Seventh Ward Mission Sabbath School will commence in Wilkins' Hall, Fourth street, on Tuesday evening next, and continue three evenings. The object of the fair is to raise means for the proposed purchase of the Seventh Ward Public School building, for Sabbath School purposes. With such a praiseworthy object in view, there should be no doubt of the success of the fair, and in this religious community there will be none, we trust. Remember the fair at Wilkins' Hall next Tuesday, Wednesday and Thursday.

DROWNED IN A DISTILLERY.—A young man by the name of George Stacy was drowned on Tuesday, ... distillery, three miles north of Connellsville. It appears that he was engaged in stirring two fermenting tubs, when by some ... accidentally fell into one of the tubs, and before assistance could arrive he was drowned. The deceased had been employed in the distillery for some time past, and was said to be a young man of good character and habits. He was twenty-two years of age, and leaves a family, who reside in Fayette county.

Township Teachers' Institute.

At the last meeting of the Baldwin Township Institute, for the school term of 1866-67, ... in the chair, and J. Linhart officiating as secretary, the following resolutions were adopted:

Resolved, That we consider the Teachers' Township Institute a valuable agent for the improvement of teachers and schools, and call upon directors and teachers throughout the county to unite their efforts and reorganize the Institute, where it has been discontinued.

Resolved, That we commend the Directors of this township for their progressive spirit, and for their prompt and faithful discharge of duty during the past term.

Resolved, That our thanks are due the citizens of this district for their hospitality manifested on all occasions, but more especially on Institute days.

Representation in Councils.

The City Councils appear disposed to act with liberality to their members, and grant them any favors they may require. It was formerly supposed that in case a member removed from the district he was elected to represent, he would send in his resignation, when a special election would be held and his successor chosen. Last year a member of the Sixth ward delegation removed to Oakland, when he promptly resigned his seat. This year, however, a contrary course is being pursued. A member from the Second ward removes to the First one from the Fifth ward removes to the Ninth, and one from the Seventh ward becomes a citizen of a township some distance from the city, yet still they occupy their accustomed seats. The charter of the city does not make it incumbent upon any members of the Council removing into other wards to resign, but it has heretofore been the custom, and the action of the members referred to is being severely commented upon by their former constituents.

An Alleged Postoffice Robber Arrested.

Yesterday morning, Captain F. Drepo, special agent of the Postoffice Department, and A. M. Fowler, Chief of Police of Clinton, Lycoming county, arrived in this city, having in custody a man calling himself Charles Williams, charged with robbing the Postoffice at Lock Haven, Pa., about a week since, of fifteen hundred letters. After his arrest, he was taken before Justice Batchelor, of Lock Haven, and after a hearing was committed to jail for trial. The jail, however, not being considered sufficiently secure, and on application of the United States District Attorney, an order for his removal to the Allegheny County Jail was issued by Judge McCandless. He was committed to the jail yesterday, for trial at the next term of the United States District Court, which commences in this city on Monday next. It is said that the prisoner's real name is Wooster, and that he hails from Philadelphia. He is a notorious jail breaker, and is said to have committed no less than thirteen postoffice robberies.

Public Amusements.

OPERA HOUSE.—At the matinee this afternoon, the nautical drama "The Lonely Man of the Ocean" will be performed. In the evening the comedy of "Take that Girl Away" and "Jessie Brown" will be performed.

MASONIC HALL.—The tableaux of the "Apocalypse" will be exhibited this afternoon and in the evening as usual. There is no abatement in the desire to see them, and crowded audiences are the rule at Masonic Hall.

ACADEMY OF MUSIC.—On the first page will be found the announcement card of the managers of the Academy of Music. It will be seen that they intend to give first-class dramatic representations, and the commencement of the season with the distinguished Shakesperian actor, James E. Murdoch, indicates that they will succeed.

POLICE INTELLIGENCE.

[Before United States Commissioner Sproul.]

AN ALLEGED OLD OFFENDER IN CUSTODY.

Officer James Brown, of the independent police force, yesterday morning arrested a notorious character named Robert Matthews, on a charge of passing counterfeit money, the information having been made about a year ago. The information against Matthews was made before United States Commissioner Sproul, in which he is charged with having been engaged in "shoving" counterfeit money in Erie county, one William McCleery being implicated with him. McCleery was arrested in Washington county, but managed to escape. Matthews also managed to keep out of the way, and eluded arrest. During the trial of a young man named William Hartz, for passing counterfeit money, in the United States Court in this city, about a year ago, it was shown that the defendant had been the dupe of Matthews and McCleery, and that the money in his posession had been obtained from them.

Matthews was seen on Fifth street yesterday morning, and information of the fact was immediately conveyed to the Government detectives. Officer Brown also started in pursuit, and overtook Matthews on Federal street, Allegheny. He was brought over to this city, and taken before Commissioner Sproul. He was searched, but no counterfeit money was found in his possession. He had nearly one hundred dollars in genuine money, and was provided with a valuable gold watch and chain, a magnificent diamond ring, and a seven-shooter. He had a preliminary examination before the commissioner, and was committed to jail for a further hearing on Thursday next, in default of three thousand dollars bail.

[Before Alderman Strain.]

A DISHONEST DOMESTIC.

Emanuel De Roy, keeper of a pawn broker's shop on the corner of Smithfield and Sixth streets, yesterday appeared and lodged two informations for larceny against a young woman named Maggie Jamison. ... in the employ of the ... alleges that in May, ... a gold ring, of the value ... of clothing; and that ... number of articles belonging ... a gold ring, valued at twenty-five dollars, ... pocket handkerchiefs, valued at eight dollars and a-half; a photographic album, valued at five dollars; one pair of stockings, and some smaller articles. The accused was arrested and held for a hearing. A search warrant was placed in the hands of officer Wilmot, to search her trunk at the house where she is now employed, in the First ward.

[Before Alderman Donaldson.]

ASSAULT WITH INTENT TO KILL.

John Haas came to the office of this magistrate yesterday afternoon, and made an information against a colored man named Julius Blackson, charging him with assault with intent to kill. Haas resides on Scott's alley, and is an express driver. Blackson is a barber, doing business in the Diamond. Yesterday afternoon, Haas was driving his wagon through the Diamond, when his horse tramped on a dog belonging to Blackson. The latter came running out, and accused Haas of having run over the dog maliciously. Haas denied this, when Blackson, it is alleged, picked up a paving stone and hurled it at him, but the latter dodged it just in time to save himself being struck on the head with it. Blackson then picked up a brick and attempted to hurl it at Haas, but he was prevented from doing so by a man who caught his arm. The accused was arrested, and after a hearing was committed to jail for trial in default of bail. Blackson is not unknown in police quarters, an information having been lodged against him before Alderman Donaldson, about nine months ago, for felonious assault and battery in shooting a colored man at a pic-nic at Glenwood Grove. He went away for a while, and managed to elude arrest until yesterday. The prosecutor has not made his appearance since the information was made, supposing that Blackson would not be arrested.

After the above information was made, a woman named Mary Harris appeared and also made an information against Blackson, charging him with assault and battery. In default of three hundred dollars bail the accused was committed to jail for trial. Blackson subsequently obtained bail in both cases, and was released from jail.

[Before Alderman Albeitz.]

LARCENY OF A SUIT OF CLOTHES.

M. Klein instituted suit yesterday against a man named H. Livingston, for larceny. The parties board at the same house on Third street, and Livingstone is charged with having stolen a suit of clothes belonging to Klein. A warrant for the arrest of the accused was placed in officer Connor's hands.

[Before Alderman Thomas.]

ALLEGED ASSAULT AND BATTERY.

Charles Good, proprietor of a beer saloon on Pennsylvania Avenue, was arrested yesterday on a charge of assault and battery, prefered by Daniel Sarver, who alleged that Good pushed him out of his saloon violently, and otherwise abused him. The charge was not established, and the case was dismissed at the cost of the prosecutor.

[Before Alderman Taylor.]

CROSS-SUITS.

John Butler and John Pennington yesterday instituted cross-suits of assault and battery against each other. From the evidence, it appears, that Butler entered the Iron City Hotel, in the Ninth ward, which is kept by Pennington, and commenced acting in a disorderly manner, when he was ejected by the latter. Butler shortly afterwards came back, and, it is alleged, assaulted Pennington. They were both held to bail for a hearing this evening.

[Before Justice Eggers, of Duquesne Borough.]

ARRESTED ON A BAIL PIECE.

Emma Johnson, against whom an information for assault and battery was lodged some time since, was arrested yesterday on a bail piece, and committed to the county jail for trial.

[Before Justice Jancey, of Lawrenceville.]

AN EX-POLICEMAN ARRESTED FOR BURGLARY.

A man named Frank J. Guth was arrested on Thursday, on suspicion of having burglariously entered the residence and bakery of Adam Streib, on Ewalt street, Lawrenceville, on the night of the 30th ult., and stolen a number of articles. A search warrant was issued by Justice Jancey, and the premises of Guth searched, which resulted in the discovery of some of the missing articles. Some articles which had been stolen early in April from the residence of Mr. Wm. Kennedy, on Ewalt street, were also found in Guth's house. The accused had a partial hearing before Justice Jancey, yesterday, on the two charges of burglary preferred against him, which resulted in his being committed to jail for a further hearing this evening, in default of $800 bail in each case. Guth was formerly an independent policeman, but was more recently connected with the Mayor's police force.

MALICIOUS MISCHIEF AND ASSAULT.

George Schade, proprietor of a saloon on Butler street, Lawrenceville, appeared yesterday afternoon and made two informations against two men named Gustavus Patrick and John Smith, for malicious mischief and assault. Mr. Schade alleges that the defendants came to his saloon intoxicated, yesterday afternoon, and asked for drinks, which was refused them. They then went out and came back shortly afterwards and commenced kicking in the doors. A man, who works in a cooper shop adjoining, attempted to prevent their depredations, when one of them drew a bowie knife and attempted to strike him. In default of three hundred dollars bail in each case, they were both committed to jail for trial.

THE COURTS.

DISTRICT COURT.—Before Judge Williams.

The jury in the case of Egbert S. Ward vs. S. K. Kane & Co., formerly reported, found for plaintiff, and assessed the damages against S. K. Kane, in the sum of $1,179 30. Notes of trial filed.

Peter S. Weaver vs. owners of steamboat Nevada. Juror withdrawn and case continued at cost of the plaintiff.

Wm. Wright vs. W. H. Barker, garnishee of Chas. Brown. On the night of the 3d of October, 1866, Charles Brown entered Messrs. Voight & Wykoff's residences, on the South side of the Monongahela, and stole about $800 in money and a quantity of wearing apparel. He was arrested shortly afterwards and taken before W. H. Barker, Esq., Justice of the Peace in South Pittsburgh, and money, clothing, etc., to the amount of about $300, found on him, which was taken possession of by the Justice. Brown was tried in the Criminal Court for the burglary, found guilty and sentenced to the Penitentiary, but in the meantime he confessed a judgment to Mr. Voight for four hundred dollars, and the money in Mr. Barker's hands was garnisheed. Neither of the parties robbed could identify the money or wearing apparel, and the counsel for defendant requested the Court to charge the jury: First, that if they believed from the evidence in the case that the money and goods attached were not the property of Charles Brown, their verdict should be for the defendant. Second, that if the jury believed the property to have been stolen by Brown then the title to the same is not vested in him, but under the act of Assembly is in the county of Allegheny, and their verdict should be for defendant. The Court charged that possession is prima facie evidence of ownership, and there was no evidence in the case showing that the property and money attached belonged to any other person than the defendant in the judgment, as whose property it was attached. It certainly did not belong to the garnishee, and he had no right to hold it. If anyone was claiming it, and showed any title to it, it would be a question for the jury to determine whether it belonged to the claimant, or whether it was the property of Brown, at the date of the attachment. There was nothing in the act of assembly, giving the title to the property to the county, and if there was, the county was not claiming it. The jury found for plaintiff.

Suicide of Another Unfortunate.

A girl named Mollie Griffin committed suicide on Thursday night, at a disreputable house, on Pennsylvania Avenue, in the Eighth Ward, kept by Mrs. Amelia Robinson. The Coroner held an inquest on the body yesterday morning, when the following facts were elicited: The unfortunate girl came to this city from Ohio, in January, 1866, and has since that time been leading a dissolute life. Her brother and sister, who reside in Akron, Ohio, hearing of her immoral conduct, visited this city some weeks ago in search of her, but she ascertained the fact and kept out of their way. Some days ago she wrote to her sister, telling her that she desired to reform her life, and was anxious to leave the city. Not receiving an answer to her letter, she appeared greatly depressed in spirits. About the same time a charge of larceny was preferred against her before an Alderman in the Sixth Ward, but upon a hearing she succeeded in proving her innocence of the charge and was released from custody. On Thursday afternoon she drank a considerable quantity of whisky, and in the evening visited the Postoffice, in company with an inmate of the house named Jennie Howard, and not receiving the letter she expected from her sister, she became very low spirited, and before reaching home began to cry. When they reached the house Mollie found her lover, there and sat down beside him, her companion retiring to her room. Shortly afterwards Mollie was found alone, weeping and in great grief, saying that both her sister and her lover had deserted her, leaving her nothing to live for. An effort was made to comfort her, and at length she askd Jennie to go out with her to buy some paper, as she wanted to write another letter to her sister. They walked along the street for a short distance, when Mollie said it was whisky and not paper that she wanted, and they went into a drug store, where she called for something, when a bottle was handed to her and they returned home. Mollie then sat down and wept until she was completely exhausted, when she was taken to her room. She then asked for some water, and when her companion returned she was found lying on the floor in a spasm, and an empty bottle labelled "laudanum" in her hand. A man who was in the house hastened to the drug store where the laudanum had been purchased, and asked the druggist if the bottle contained sufficient to cause death. The druggist replied that Mollie had purchased twenty cents worth of the drug, and that if she had taken the whole of it death would be the result. Dr. Baren was then called in, who administered an emetic, but without effect, and the wretched girl died about twelve o'clock.

The deceased was about twenty-one years of age, and has frequently, since her arrival in this city, been arrested by the police. She appeared at the recent term of the Criminal Court as a witness in a case, and her conduct on that occasion was disgusting in the extreme. Her relatives have been apprized of her death, and in case they do not send for the body it will be interred at the expense of the county.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH:

Gentlemen—I have been severely afflicted with paralysis of the stomach, and even given up by several eminent physicians. I have tried several remedies of a tonic and stimulating nature, but without any good result. Some three or four months ago I was induced to try your STOMACH BITTERS, and have used about seven or eight bottles with a decided benefit. My health is greatly improved; and I consider your Bitters the only efficacious remedy of their kind in the market. If used as directed they will always prove a sovereign remedy to those afflicted with dyspepsia or other diseases of a like nature.

Respectfully yours,
LYMAN MUDGE.

HASTINGS, Dakota Co., Minn., Aug. 1866.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH, Pittsburgh, Pa.:

Gentlemen—Have sold your Bitters ever since they were brought out, and consider them the best among the many before the public. Those brought out since the tax has been imposed on spirits are trash. I never recommend them.

Respectfully and truly yours,
R. J. MARVIN.

COLON, St. Joseph Co., Mich., July 31, 1866.

MESSRS. HOSTETTER & SMITH:

Gentlemen—I consider your Bitters a sovereign balm for a thousand ails.

Yours, truly, D. C. REYNOLDS, M. D.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

FRIDAY EVENING, May 3, 1867.

The advance in the gold premium in the face of the heavy disbursements on account of the May coupons, has taken dealers by surprise. Governments have become too high for investers here, and there are comparatively few transactions.

—The New York stock market is buoyant on the Railway list, but certain of the railroad stocks have not advanced in proportion to the rise in the price of the clique stocks, and it is not improbable that some of these may be next taken in hand. The outside public do not appear to have been attracted to Wall street by the late operation; but brokers, in the absence of commissions, are induced to take a "flyer" on their own account. There is a singular absence of definite opinion as to the course that prices should take, which makes it difficult to form combinations among the leading brokers and renders the market equally susceptible to bull or bear operations.

—The Internal Revenue receipts for April are $14,314,050. The receipts since the beginning of the present fiscal year are $228,449,604. The receipts per day for April are $480,467. The receipts for April, 1865, were $14,433,466; for 1866, $19,425,851.

—The investigation into the affairs of J. R. Morton, assigned to Joseph G. These figures are not precise, but the relations of assets and debts will not be varied much from what they show.—Cin. Commercial.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE IRON COPPER, STEEL, LUMBER, AND OTHER MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, FRIDAY EVENING, May 3, 1867.

After three months' suspension of operations, the nail mills generally, and a few merchant bar mills of the city are resuming operations. The bar mills anticipate but a short run, in order to assort stocks on hand. There is nothing present or prospective in the trade to warrant the accumulation of manufactured stock. The season of Spring trade will soon be past, and the aim of manufacturers of bars and sheets is to reduce stocks to the lowest possible point. There is a good degree of activity in nails at fairly remunerative rates.

Now that a partial resumption of operations by the iron mills is about to take place, the market for crude iron begins to show signs of life. The business however is still light, but there is considerable enquiry making, and we trust that ere the lapse of another week we will be able to report a fair aggregate amount of sales.

We are quoted the following sales:

BLOOMS.

We could not learn of any transactions in blooms. Dealers are not disposed to furnish the prices.

STEEL—There has been no change since our last in prices, nor is there any increase in trade.

COPPER—The market continues very dull but unchanged in prices. In New York manufacturered is still unsettled and prices are somewhat irregular; we quote New York Sheathing, Bolts and Braziers all 36c. Yellow Metal Sheathing 23c, and Y. M. Bolts 26c net cash. Consumers purchase very sparingly of Ingot, and the business is still chiefly on speculation; prices are without marked change, though the turn of the market is rather in buyers' favor. The sales embrace about 200,000 lbs. at 23¼c for Baltimore, 23¾@24c for Portage Lake, and 24½c for Detroit; 50,000 lbs. Tennessee also sold at 24c.

TIN—There is no change in the market, and trade rules dull. In New York there is some businees doing in Straits Pig, but otherwise the market is very quiet and prices are in a measure nominal. The sales are 500 slabs Straits on private terms; and 140 do 12½c; Barrel 25c, and English 22c, gold. Plates are only in jobbing demand. We quote I. C. Charcoal, ordinary brands, $9 12½. I. C. Coke $7 50@8 25, Charcoal Terne $8 75, and Coke do $7, all gold.

HARDWARE—There has not been the same activity in the market which we noticed the past two weeks. There is a moderate business doing, chiefly in building materials. There is an excellent stock of all descriptions in the market. On account of the variety of articles quotations are out of the question, but prices have not undergone any change for some time.

HOUSE FURNISHING GOODS—There is a good stock of all descriptions in the market, but prices have changed but little since this time last year. Articles of tin ware and wooden ware may be quoted a little lower. Trade has been, generally, dull and much below the average spring business.

LUMBER—There is a large quantity afloat for sale, but as yet the sales have been few, as holders of rafts and yard men are apart in their views. We note sales of some 200,000 feet of boards in the water, averaging about 20 per cent. of the upper qualities, at $22 50 ⅌ M, and 1,000,000 feet common at $19 00 ⅌ M. The asking prices are from $17 00 to $25, as to quality. A large amount of Lumber has been floated on to the lower river trade. Trade from the yards is fair and prices unchanged.

LEATHER AND HIDES—There is a fair business doing and prices of most kinds of leather have been rather tending upward. The only changes we notice are an advance in rough oak, light, to 36@38c ⅌ lb; in green hides to 8@9c ⅌ lb; and a reduction in tanner's oil, No. 1 to 95c@$1 00 ⅌ gal.

FRUITS AND CONFECTIONARY—The trade in foreign fruits has been active, as has also been the confectionary business in general. We have no changes to note except in the following: Pine apples ⅌ doz $2 75@3 50; Turkish prunes, prime new, ⅌ lb, 24c; oranges ⅌ box $6 50@7 00, and lemons ⅌ box $6 25@6 50.

BOOTS AND SHOES—The market presents no new features, the business is light, and prices unchanged. There is an excellent stock on the market.

GLASS—Trade continues dull and prices remain as quoted for several months past. It is likely that the manufacturers will stop operation before long, as the present inactive trade will not justify a continuance of work. There is a good stock of all descriptions on the market.

BROOMS—There is a moderate trade doing by manufacturers, but prices remain unchanged. There is a good stock on the market.

PAPER—Trade continues brisk and prices unchanged.

ALES—There has been no change since our last in the card prices of ales.

CRACKERS—There is considerable doing, but prices have not undergone any change since our last.

WOOL—There is nothing doing here and no trade expected until after the clipping. In New York, says the Commercial List, the increased movement during the latter part of last week was spasmodic, the market having again relapsed into a lethargic condition, with prices of domestic decidedly in favor of buyers. There is some demand for the foreign, but at prices which would afford importers no profit on the current cost of importation. The future course of the market will depend entirely upon the state of trade in manufactures, and from present appearances, we are destined to witness a dull summer. Th. sales are 125,000 lbs State and Western fleece at 48@55c for low to medium western, and 57½@64c for fine and XX, including Ohio and West Virginia at 62½@64c; also 25,000 lbs pulled at 40@55c for super and extra; 30,000 lbs Texas, 24@38c for medium to fine; ... lbs California, 24@34c; and 50 bales Mestiza, and 15 do Cape, on terms reserved. By auction, 7,500 lbs Picklock sold at 61½c; 30,000 lbs XX, 57@59c; 5,000 lbs medium, 50c; 10,000 lbs No. 1, 55½c; 6,000 lbs superior pulled, 37@38½c; 10,000 lbs fine California, 26@27c; 13,000 lbs medium do, 23½@24c; 8 bales Cape, 29c; 1,000 lbs broken fleece, 50c; 200 lbs pulled do, 45c, cash.

PRODUCE AND GENERAL MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, FRIDAY EVENING, May 3, 1867.

Our general markets, to-day, were only moderately active. There appears to be a general dullness in trade, except in a few branches, such as flour, groceries and other indispensable articles of daily consumption.

The receipts of leading articles of produce per river and railroad, since our last, were as follows: Flour 715 bbls; apples 60 bbls; cheese 38 boxes; corn 821 sacks; wheat 100 sacks; oats 683 sacks, and butter 50 packages.

We quote as follows, which are the wholesale prices unless otherwise stated:

APPLES—Market unchanged but rather dull, except for choice. We quote prices ranging from $4 00@5 25 per bbl, as to quality.

BACON AND LARD—There is a moderate trade doing. We note sales of 100 pieces canvassed S. C. Hams at 16½c; 400 pieces S. C. do at 15½@15¾c; 100 pieces S. C. Shoulders at 11c; 200 pieces do do at 9¾c; Ribbed Sides at 11½@12c; clear Sides at 12½c, and Lard at 13@13½c ⅌ lb. Sales reported of 1,500 lbs, country meat, clear sides at 11c ⅌ lb, and 10 kegs Lard at 11c ⅌ lb for No. 2.

BUTTER—Prices have not changed since our last. We note sales of 300 lbs choice grass at 33c; 400 lbs prime at 30c and 10 packages of good at 25c ⅌ lb.

CHEESE—We note sales of common at 10c ⅌ lb.

EGGS—Sales reported of 20 bbls at 15c ⅌ doz.

FEED—We note sales of 15 tons middlings at $2 25 ⅌ hundred.

FLOUR—We have no change to report in regard to the market. Good spring wheat brands are bringing from $14 25 to $15 ⅌ bbl.

GRAIN—We have no reported sales of wheat, and continue to quote No. 2 spring nominally at $2 90@3 00 ⅌ bush.

CORN—There is a small advance noted in prices. Sales reported of 3½ cars, car and shelled, at $1 10 ⅌ bush.

OATS—Prices remain as last quoted. We note sales from depot at 60c ⅌ bush, and from store at 65c ⅌ bush; also a sale of one car; on the track at 66½c ⅌ bush.

RYE—We quote from elevator at $1 55 ⅌ bush.

HAY—Sales of 10 wagon loads at the scales were made at prices ranging from $26 to $30 ⅌ ton.

POTATOES—The market is dull. Sales from store reprted of Peachblow Potatoes at 90@95c ⅌ bush.

PITTSBURGH DRY GOODS MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, THURSDAY, May 2, 1867.

We have nothing of special interest to report in the Dry Goods market. Business continues good, and our jobbers are buying often and advising their customers to do the same.

Prices are changing somewhat, but variations are not very great, and purchasers have some satisfaction in the thought that the great declines to which they have been exposed during the last four years are no longer to be feared.

PITTSBURGH OIL TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH COMMERCIAL, SATURDAY, May 4, 1867.

Business yesterday was not very active; buyers were disposed to hold off, the terms did not exactly suit their views. The Allegheny river was too high for navigable purposes. The only sales that came under our notice were 3,000 bbls sellers' option, deliverable September, October and November at 8½c; 1,100 bbls of bulk, immediate, at 6¾c, and 50 bbls do on the same condition.

REFINED—The sales were as follows: 1,000 barrels standard white, buyer's option, all 1867, at 28½c, Philadelphia, with $1 00 ⅌ bbl paid on the spot to secure the contract; also, 500 bbls do on the same conditions; sales 1,000 bbls standard white, buyer's option, June, at 27½c. The market closed dull without any demand for large parcels. The stock on hand is not large.

THE line of steamers between Decatur and Chattanooga, Tennessee, has been discontinued, owing to the opening of the Nashville and Chattanooga Railroad bridge across the Tennessee, at Bridgeport.

THE Leonora was fined $100 at Evansville for not having a synopsis of the acts of Congress hung in her cabin. The best lawyers here think there is no law for it.

SALE OF THE PEERLESS.—The Cincinnati Gazette says: The Peerless was sold to Captain Coffman for $20,000. She will be placed in the Chilo trade in opposition to the Mary Ament.

TOO KIND ENTIRELY.—The Louisville Courier reporter calls us "our clever friend of the Pittsburgh COMMERCIAL." We object to this; we prefer going alone.

THE CINCINNATI GAZETTE ON THE SITUATION.—Business yesterday was dull, and but two boats cleared outside the regular packets. It is not improbable shipments will be more plentiful to-day and through the remainder of the week.

THE Memphis Appeal says that while Captain John Cannon was on his way from Cairo to Memphis, on the Alton, some light-fingered thief confiscated all the money the Captain had—some $150. He left his vest in his stateroom while he went to wash.

THE first class passenger steamer Armenia, Capt. H. C. McCallam, is announced for Cairo and Saint Louis. This boat has unsurpassed accommodations and is in charge of officers that would make a less worthy boat popular.

CAPT. ANAWALT is again on hand for another barge trip to St. Louis. The handsome model barges Dove and Swan, are moored at the foot of Wood st. These boats will have dispatch. We take pleasure in saying a good word for Captain John and the Wild Duck.

OUR old friend Capt. Joseph Browne has announced the favorite steamer Ida Rees for Cincinnati and Louisville. This boat is just off the ways, having undergone thorough and complete repair. Persons desiring a pleasant trip should not neglect the Ida Rees.

THE fine passenger steamer Belle Vernon, Capt. J. J. Darragh is announced for Cairo and St. Louis, on Thursday. This boat is one of the best of her class afloat, and is in charge of careful and attentive officers. Passengers who have traveled on her speak in flattering terms of the appointments.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The punctual St. Louis packet Belle Vernon, Captain J. J. Darragh, is announced for Cairo and St. Louis. This boat was built expressly for the trade, is well found in every respect and is a large favorite with passengers and shippers. Passengers who have traveled on this packet speak in flattering terms of her appointments.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—The splendid packet Minnie, Captain Shaw, takes her departure this day positively for Cincinnati. This is one of the best boats of her class afloat, whilst no more clever officer than Shaw can be found. Captain McConnell, who presides in the office, will see that passengers have the best of attention.

THE Parkersburg packet for this day is the steamer "Grey Eagle," Capt. Brennan. This boat has superior accommodations and attentive officers. Our old friend Mr. George Ford, a clever gentleman, who has charge of the saloon, keeps an excellent assortment of choice brands of segars and very superior lemonade. Just give George a trial.

ST. LOUIS, May 1.—Rivers all falling. Weather fine. Business good. The competition between the Omaha lines and Miami line of packets has greatly reduced the rates of freight on the Lower Missouri. The auction sale of the Atlantic Company's steamers, Edward Walsh, Atlantic and Mary Forsyth, has just been completed. The first was knocked down to Sebastian, of the Union Dock Company, for $8,000, and the others to Samuel Stildwell for $7,413, respectively.

No. 5 Nassau St., N. Y.,

Recommend to Investors the

FIRST MORTGAGE BONDS, OF THE CENTRAL PACIFIC R. R. CO.

This Company is constructing under the patronage of the United States Government, the Western end of the Great National Railway Across the Continent.

Their line will extend from Sacramento, California, across the Sierra Nevadas to the California State Line, traversing the Richest and most Populous Section of California, and thence through the Great Mining Regions of the Territories, to the vicinity of Salt Lake City.

It forms the sole Western link of the only route to the Pacific which is adopted by Congress and aided by the issue of United States Bonds.

Their road is already completed, equipped and running for 94 miles from Sacramento to within 12 miles of the summit of the Sierras, and a large amount of the work of Grading, Tunnelling, &c., beyond that point has been accomplished.

The First Mortgage Bonds of this Company afford unusual inducements of Safety and Profit to Investors, for the following among other reasons, viz:

First. The rate of interest is Six per Cent. in Gold, payable semi-annually in the city of New York.

Second. The Principal is payable in Gold at maturity.

Third. The cost of the Bonds, Ninety-five Per Cent. and accrued interest, is Ten Per Cent. less than that of the cheapest Six Per Cent. Gold Bearing Bonds of the Government.

Fourth. The United States Government provides nearly half the amount necessary to build the entire road, and looks mainly to a small percentage on the future traffic for re-payment.

Fifth. Owing to this liberal provision, accompanied with Extensive Grants of Public Lands, by which the Government fosters this great national enterprise, its success is rendered certain, and its financial stability is altogether independent of the contingencies which attend ordinary Railroad enterprises.

Sixth. The Security of its First Mortgage Bonds is therefore ample, and their character for safety and reliability is equalled only by that of the obligations of the Government itself.

Seventh. The net earnings of the completed portion are already largely in excess of the interest obligations which the Company will incur on twice the distance, and are steadily increasing, rendering the uninterrupted payment of the Interest absolutely certain.

Eigth. At the present rate of Gold they pay nearly 8½ Per Cent. per annum, on the amount invested.

The Bonds are issued in denominations of $1,000 with semi annual Gold Coupons attached, payable in New York, and are offered for the present at 95 per cent. and accrued interest (in currency) from January 1st.

Orders may be forwarded to us direct, or through the principal Banks and Bankers in all parts of the country.

Remittances may be made in drafts on New York, or in Legal Tender Notes, National Bank Notes or other funds current in this city, and the Bonds will be forwarded to any address by express, free of charge. Inquiries for further particulars, by mail or otherwise, will receive punctual attention.

SOUTHWEST PACIFIC RAILROAD CO.

SEVEN PER CENT.

First Mortgage Bonds

$2,000,000 in Coupon Bonds of $1,000 Each,

TWENTY YEARS TO RUN,

Principal and Interest Guaranteed by the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company,

And secured by property valued at $7,500,000, consisting of their completed road to the Gasconade river, 127 miles from St. Louis, and 350,000 Acres of Rich Agricultural and Mineral Lands on its line.

This road passes through a country rich in agricultural resources and in minerals, and particularly in iron and lead; the iron ore of the Southwest Missouri being the purest known, ranging from ... to 90 per cent. of pure iron. Rich and extensive deposits of specular oxide and red and brown hematite abound all along the line of the road and on the Company's lands in greater quantities than the total in any deposit of any State in the Union, and a large business is now being inaugurated in freighting iron ore for the Eastern furnaces, the vast excess in yield of this over other ores paying the differences in cost of transportation.

By a provision of the mortgage, when lands are sold to the amount of $40,000, it is to constitute a fund for the redemption of a like amount of bonds, which are also received by the Company at PAR in payment for land. This land is now being disposed of at rates from $5 to $40 per acre. The climate is remarkably salubrious, and the mean temperature the same as in Virginia, the winter being short and mild. For particulars respecting lands, address Colonel A. A. TALBERT, Land Agent, at St. Louis, Mo.

The Company has been recently merged with the Atlantic and Pacific Railroad Company, having a land grant of 55,000,000 of acres, thereby adding to the fullest to the security of these bonds.

The road of the latter Company, when completed, will form a direct and continuous railway from St. Louis to San Francisco, much shorter and of vastly easier gradients than any other route.

Of the present issue of bonds, a limited amount is now offered for sale at the low rate of 80 per cent., subject to advance at the option of the Company.

For further particulars apply to

WARD & CO., Bankers,

NO. 54 WALL ST., NEW YORK.

Or to the undersigned, who are the authorized Agents for the sale of the above Bonds in this city, and having made a thorough examination into their merits, we would respectfully recommend them to our friends and capitalists as a safe, reliable and good paying investment.
